No

What is your proposed chapter priority? (Priorities should be winnable, transformative and widely and deeply felt.) *

Our chapter should prioritize supporting and running class-struggle candidates: socialists who are by, of, and for the working class and who will use their campaigns and office to foster working-class militancy and consciousness, draw sharp political lines with capitalists, and build socialist power independent of capitalist parties.

Where are you focusing your priority? (This should be a geographical area, such as a city, town or county.) *

We will prioritize legislative districts that our Electoral Working Group determines as strategic based on our ongoing research.

Who are your targets? (Your target is the person or people that have the power to meet your demands. If none, put N/A) *

Politicians that represent the interests of capital

Who are your opponents? (Your opponents are people or groups who will actively try to prevent us from winning our campaign. If none, put N/A) *

Democratic Party Machine, business associations, real estate industry

Who are your allies in this campaign/work? (Your allies are people or groups who will actively try to aid us in winning our campaign. If none, put N/A) * labor unions, faith based organizations

What tactics will you use and how do they fit into a larger strategy? (Tactics are actions-- mutual aid, car caravans, phone-banking--that should escalate into a larger strategy to achieve an aim) *

Door knocking, phone banking, rallies

What are some quantifiable and qualitative short-term and long-term goals? (Quantifiable goals do not need to be precise, just estimates.) *

Knock on thousands of doors and talking to working class people about DSA and the need to fight for socialism.

How will you bring in new members to the DSA and develop new leaders? How will you engage our existing members in the work? *

We will bring in new members by knocking on doors in working class neighborhoods and talking about the key issues in their life. We will recruit them by showing them our vision and that the only way we as the working class can win is through organizing! Our goal is to recruit ordinary people to the campaign, bring them into DSA and train them to have 1-1 conversations and lead phone banks/canvassing efforts.
